

CUPID LIMITED

Manufacturers and Suppliers of Male & Female Condoms

PRESS RELEASE

Ref:- Cupid Limited . Script Code 530843

Sub:- Receipt of order for supply of Female Condom of USD 16.28 million

Mr. Om Garg, Chairman and Managing Director of Cupid Limited is pleased to announce that Company has received an order worth USD 16.28 million equivalents to approx Rs.103.23 Cr. to supply Female Condoms in Cupid Brand to the National Department of Health (NDOH), South Africa.

This order is to be executed over next three years starting from July 1st 2015 till June 30th 2018. This new Order is in continuation of earlier order which has already been executed on schedule by the Company.

Mr Om Garg is excited to announce that this is the second year in a row that Cupid has received such an order from South Africa.

The company would also like to mention that the worldwide demand for Female Condoms is on increase as it helps to prevent the spread of sexually transmitted infections (STIs) including HIV and also helps to prevent unintended pregnancies especially amongst young people.

As reported earlier, Cupid Female Condom is only the second condom in the world which is Pre-Qualified by WHO and UNFPA (United Nation Population Fund).
