

CUPID LIMITED

We help the world play safe...

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

Fellow Shareholders,

In Spite of low growth of the industry, your company has made a history by achieving highest ever revenue since its inception during the Financial Year ended 31st March, 2015. Your Company's products have been well conceived in the International Markets as your Company is Pre-Qualified by World Health Organisation (WHO) and United Nation Population Fund (UNFPA) for supply of Male and Female Condoms.

Your Company continues to explore for additional customers in new geographies. My fellow shareholders will be happy to know that your Company is only the First Company in India and Second Company in the world, Pre-qualified by WHO/UNFPA to supply FEMALE CONDOMS (Source: UNFPA website.) Demand for Female condom is increasing to prevent sexually transmitted infections STIs including HIV and to prevent unintended pregnancy. Your company's products have been well accepted in more than 25 countries throughout the world and is in the process of adding new products like Lubricant Jelly.

Financial Front :

Your Company reported net revenue of Rs. 45.14 crores in FY 2014 -15 (up by 130 % from the Previous Financial Year) and the net Profit before tax and after tax also improved significantly from Rs. 10.79 lacs and Rs. 5.19 lacs to Rs. 1143.65 lacs and Rs. 770.82 lacs respectively.

Your Company also achieved another landmark by remaining debt free during the year.

Your Company has also declared the first interim dividend @1.00 rupee per share at their board meeting held on 17th January, 2015. Based on the improved performance, the board has further approved final dividend of Rs. 0.50 per equity share at their board meeting on 18th May, 2015 for the financial year ended 31st March, 2015, which will be subject to approval of shareholders at the ensuing Annual General Meeting.

Business Outlook and Strategy:

Your company's products are well accepted in the local and international markets. This is mainly due to timely delivery of the orders received during the year. The contraceptive market is projected to grow at approximately 20% per year and your company is well prepared to capitalize on it. Your Company also expects to expand the sale of Female and Male condoms to new geographic areas in South America, Europe and Central Asia

In the year ahead, we are looking for a growth of 15-20% based on existing orders in hand and additional orders expected from the existing and new customers due to our good quality products and timely delivery.

This year your company has started to sale its products on e-commerce sites ensuring the reach of our products to people in remote areas. Your Company is also creating awareness and promotion of Condoms through the social media platforms.

Creation of Wealth for Shareholders:

It was a Very Good Year for this company and will continue to work with passion to further improve the value for all the stakeholders.

Acknowledgments :

On behalf of Company, I would like to thanks the senior management and staff of the Company, who have worked hard for the growth and stayed with the company specially during the lean period. I am also grateful to my fellow directors for their continued guidance, advice and foresight that helped in achieving the growth. I would also like to extend my heartfull gratitude and thanks to our valued customers and suppliers for their faith in our product and services, we provide.

Finally, my thanks to all our shareholders for their continued trust and confidence in the company. With your support, we are confident of keeping up the growth momentum and hope to report even better results in coming years.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Members of
CUPID LIMITED.

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of CUPID LIMITED ("the Company"), which comprise the Balance Sheet as at 31st March, 2015, and the Statement of Profit and Loss Statement and Cash Flow statement for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance of the Company in accordance with the Accounting Standards specified under section 133 read with Rule 7 of the Companies (Account), Rules 2014. This responsibility includes the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Those Standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of the accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the financial statements give the information required by the Act in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India:

Accompanying notes to the financial statements for the year ended 31st March, 2015

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. General Information

Cupid Limited ('the Company') is a public company domiciled and incorporated in name of Cupid Rubber Limited in the state of Maharashtra on 17th February, 1993. The name was subsequently changed to Cupid Condom Limited with effect from 8th December, 2003 and further change to Cupid Limited with effect from 2nd January, 2006 as per permission affirmation by Central Government. The Company received the Certificate of Commencement of Business on 20th February, 1993.

The main object of Company on incorporation was to carry on business of dealing, marketing and manufacture of rubber contraceptives and allied prophylactic products. Later on main object of Company have been appended with obligatory permissions to entered into Diamonds, Gold, Silver and other allied precious products international or domestic trading/manufacturing/connected business segments.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

a) Basis of Preparation of Financial Statements

The financial statements are prepared and presented under the historical cost convention, on the accrual basis of accounting and in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in India ('Indian GAAP') to comply with the accounting Standards specified under section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with Rule 7 of the Companies (accounts) Rules, 2014 and the relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 (' the Act ') / The Companies Act 1956 as applicable.

The Classification of assets and liabilities of the Companies into current or non current is based on the criterion specified in the Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013. The Company has ascertained its operating cycle as 12 months for the purpose of current and non-current classification of assets and liabilities.

b) Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements are in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in India (Indian GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses and disclosure of contingent liabilities on the date of the financial statements. The estimates and assumptions used in the accompanying financial statements are based upon management's evaluation of the relevant facts and circumstances as of the date of financial statements which in management's opinion are prudent and reasonable. Actual results may differ from the estimates used in preparing the accompanying financial statements. Any revision to accounting estimates is recognised prospectively in current and future periods.

c) Fixed Tangible Assets / Intangible Assets

Fixed Assets are stated on original cost less accumulated depreciation. The total cost of assets comprises its purchase price, freight, duties, taxes and any other incidental expenses directly attributable to bringing the asset to the working condition for its intended use. Assets costing less than or equal to Rs. 5,000 are treated as company revenue expenditures or else depreciated fully in the year of purchase.

Intangible assets are recognized if it is probable that the future economic benefits that are attributable to the assets will flow to the Company and cost of the assets can be measured reliably.

d) Depreciation & Amortization

On Tangible Assets :-

The Company has provided depreciation on basis of useful lives as prescribed in Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013 consequent to schedule II becoming applicable w. e. f. 01st April 2014. The excess depreciation on tangible assets whose useful life is already exhausted as on 1st April 2014 is transferred to General reserves (net of deferred taxes).

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIESOn Intangible Assets :-

Intangible Assets are amortized on Straight Line Method over the useful life, based on the economic benefits that would be derived, as per the estimates made by the management. Computer Software be written off over a period of three years.

e) Impairment of Assets

The Company assesses at each Balance Sheet date whether there is any indication that an asset or a group of assets (cash generating unit) may be impaired. If any such indication exists, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the asset or a group of assets. The recoverable amount of the asset (or where applicable, that of the cash generating unit to which the asset belongs) is estimated as the higher of its net selling price and its value in use. If such recoverable amount of the asset or the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs is less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount is reduced to its recoverable amount. The reduction is treated as an impairment loss and is recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss. After impairment, depreciation is provided on the revised carrying amount of the asset over its remaining useful life.

Value in use is the present value of estimated future cash flow expected to arise from the continuing use of the assets and from its disposal at the end of its useful life.

If at the Balance Sheet date there is an indication that a previously assessed impairment loss no longer exists, the recoverable amount is reassessed and the asset is reflected at the recoverable amount subject to a maximum of depreciable historical cost.

f) Inventories

Inventories are valued at lower of cost or net realizable value. Basis of determination of cost remain as follows:

Items	Methodology of Valuation
Raw materials, components, stores and spares, Trading goods, and Packing Materials	Cost is determined on FIFO cost method. Materials and other items held for use in the production of inventories are not written down below cost, if the finished products in which they will be incorporated are expected to be sold at or above cost.
Work-in-progress and finished goods	Cost includes direct materials and labor and a proportion of manufacturing overheads based on normal operating capacity. Cost of finished goods includes provision for excise duty if applicable.
Goods in Transits if any have been valued inclusive of custom duty .
Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

g) Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the revenue can be reliably measured.

Sales of goods : Revenue from sale of goods is recognised on transfer of all significant risks and rewards of ownership to the buyer. Sales are stated net of trade discount, duties and sales tax as applicable.

Interest incomes : Interest income is recognized on time proportion basis.

Other Incomes : Export incentive, income from investment and other service income are accounted on accrual basis.

Accompanying notes to the financial statements for the year ended 31st March, 2015
SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIESh) Investments :

Investments are classified under Non-current and current categories, as applicable are carried at cost of acquisition

i) Foreign Currency Transactions

Initial recognition : Foreign currency transactions are recorded in the reporting currency which is Indian Rupee, by applying to the foreign currency amount the exchange rate between the reporting currency and the foreign currency at the date of the transaction.

Conversion : Monetary assets and liabilities in foreign currency, which are outstanding as at the year-end, are translated at the year-end at the closing exchange rate and the resultant exchange differences are recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss. Non-monetary foreign currency items are carried at cost.

Exchange Differences : Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items or on reporting monetary items of the Company at rates different from those at which they were initially recorded during the year, or reported in previous financial statements, are recognised as income or as expenses in the year in which they arise.

j) Retirement and Other Employee Benefits

Short term employee benefits: All employee benefits payable wholly within twelve months of rendering the service are classified as short-term employee benefits. These benefits include short term compensated absences such as paid annual leave. The undiscounted amount of short-term employee benefits expected to be paid in exchange for the services rendered by employees is recognized as an expense during the period. Benefits such as salaries and wages, etc. and the paid or expected cost of the incentives / miscellaneous welfare compensations / bonus / ex-gratia are recognised in the period in which the employee renders the related service.

Long term Post employment employee benefits : Company's periodical makes contribution to several vital funds and employee benefits insurances schemes its cost has been charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss of the year where such contributions to the respective funds are due or on accrual basis.

Such contribution are to the Employee's Provident fund Scheme, 1952 govern by regional provident funds commissioner, Maharashtra whereby Company's employee are obligation towards pension and retirement benefits are covered.

Further the Company's liability towards gratuity of eligible employees is administered by Life Insurance Corporation of India under its Employees Group Gratuity Scheme and annual premium paid by the Company.

In addition certain employee benefits insurances schemes whereby Company's uncertain risk cost is covered by annual premium paid are been paid by the Company have been charged on accrual basis.

k) Leases

Any applicable assets taken under leases, where the company assumes substantially all the risks and rewards of Ownership are classified as Finance Leases. Such assets are capitalized at the inception of the lease at the lower of fair value or the present value of minimum lease payments and a liability is created for an equivalent amount. Each lease rental paid is allocated between the liability and the interest cost, so as to obtain a constant periodic rate of interest on outstanding liability for each period.

Assets taken under leases, where the lessor effectively retains substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the leased term, are classified as operating leases. Operating lease payments are recognized as an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term as applicable.

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIESl) Taxation

Income-tax expense if any comprises current tax, deferred tax charge or credit, minimum alternative tax (MAT).

Current tax : Provision for current tax is made for the tax liability payable on taxable income after considering tax allowances, deductions and exemptions determined in accordance with the prevailing tax laws.

Deferred tax : Deferred tax liability or asset is recognized for timing differences between the profits/losses offered for income tax and profits/losses as per the financial statements. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the current ongoing tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the Balance Sheet date. Deferred tax asset is recognized only to the extent there is reasonable certainty that the assets can be realized in future; however, where there is unabsorbed depreciation or carried forward loss under taxation laws, deferred tax asset is recognized only if there is a virtual certainty of realization of such asset. Deferred tax asset is reviewed as at each Balance Sheet date and written down or written up to reflect the amount that is reasonably/virtually certain to be realized.

Minimum alternative tax : Minimum alternative tax (MAT) obligation in accordance with the tax laws, which give rise to future economic benefits in the form of adjustment of future income tax liability, is considered as an asset if there is convincing evidence that the Company will pay normal tax during the specified period. Accordingly, it is recognized as an asset in the Balance Sheet when it is probable that the future economic benefit associated with it will flow to the Company and the asset can be measured reliably.

m) Borrowing Cost

Borrowing costs if any to the extent related/attributable to the acquisition/construction of assets that takes substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use are capitalized along with the respective fixed asset up to the date such asset is ready for use. Other borrowing costs are charged to the Statement of Profit and Loss.

n) Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period.

Diluted earnings per share are calculated after adjusting effects of potential equity shares (PES). PES are those shares which will convert into equity shares at a later stage. Profit / loss is adjusted by the expenses incurred on such PES. Adjusted profit/loss is divided by the weighted average number of ordinary plus potential equity shares.

o) Provisions and Contingencies

A provision is recognised when an enterprise has a present obligation as a result of past event and it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made. Provisions are not discounted to their present values and are determined based on management estimate required to settle the obligation at the Balance Sheet date. These are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current management estimates.

Contingent liabilities are disclosed in respect of possible obligations that have arisen from past events and the existence of which will be confirmed only by the occurrence or non-occurrence of future events not wholly within the control of the Company.

When there is an obligation in respect of which the likelihood of outflow of resources is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.

p) Exports Benefits

Consumption of raw material is arrived after deducting export benefits accrued such as refund of duty and duty draw back as per exim policy in the year of such exports.

Previous Year Accumulated Depreciation : - Adjusted on Sale of Assets

The Company has revised depreciation rates on fixed assets effective 1st April 2014 in accordance with requirements of schedule II of Companies Act 2013 ("the Act"). The remaining useful life has been revised by adopting standard useful life as per New Companies Act, 2013 except for certain plant and machineries where management estimates for remaining useful life has been taken. The carrying amount as on 1st April 2014 is depreciated over the remaining useful life. As a result of this changes (a) the depreciation charged for the year ended 31st March 2015 is higher by Rs. 32.57 Lacs. (b) there is a debit to retained earning of Rs. 11.75 Lacs net (net of deferred tax) for the assets whose remaining life as on 1st April 2014 is expired in accordance with the revised life as per Companies Act, 2013.
