BUSINESS OUTLOOK

Based on the healthy order book, we anticipate a strong performance in the 4th quarter similar to the 3rd quarter. It would also depend on the allocation from the new tender from South Africa during FY 22. Going forward, we believe that growth of our business will be positively impacted due to increase in demand of especially male condoms worldwide for the prevention of STIs including HIV and for prevention of unintended pregnancies. Also, additional revenue from the diagnostic would contribute to the overall performance.
